The Balanced Christian Life - Part 5: I Am Pleasing To God

Part of a balanced Christian life is living a life that is pleasing to God. A life that displays godly character pleases God. Today we will learn what it means to please God and how we can live a life the pleases God.

1. A life that pleases God. John 8:29, Colossians 1:9-10

2. A life trained by grace. Titus 2:11-14

Conclusion: Create balance and stability in your life by making a determination to live a life that please God through godly character and lifestyle. Let God's grace teach and train you to live a godly life and maintain balance in your life.

Discussion questions.

1. Why should we please God with our lifestyle?
2. What does it mean to please God?
