

Sunday, 13 June 2021

Part 5: Others Are Wonderful and Marvelous Too

When you think of others, do the words wonderful and marvelous come to mind? God wants you to know that He also created others to be wonderful and marvelous. We will learn what not to think about others and steps to thinking of others as wonderful and marvelous.

1. Do not think evil of others - Zechariah 8:17

2 Steps how to think of others as wonderful and marvelous

2.1 See them as who they are in Christ - 2 Corinthians 5:16

2.2 Believe the best about them - 1 Corinthians 13:7

2.3 Help them – Galatians 6:1

2.4 Having balance and wisdom

Conclusion: As Christians develop a godly thought life, the way they think about others will change. We will not think evil of others but will think about others the same way God thinks of others - as wonderful and marvelous. Steps to help us think of others as wonderful and marvelous include seeing them in Christ, always believing the best in them, and helping people when they do wrong. At the same time have balance and use wisdom.

Discussion Questions:

1. What does the Bible say we should not think of others?
2. What are the steps to thinking of others as wonderful and marvelous?
3. In what ways should we use balance and wisdom when others do wrong?