

Living in God's Plan - Part 2 Your Words Determine the Course of Your Life

Intro: The Bible teaches that your words will determine your life's course. To live in God's plan, you must tame your tongue and continue to speak God's Word over your life.

1 You must choose God's plan for your life - Deuteronomy 30:15-16, 19

1.1 Whether or not you walk in the blessings of God is not up to God or the devil. It is up to you. You have the deciding vote.

2 Your words determine the course of your life - James 3:2-5

2.1 Whether you walk in God's plan or the devil's plan for your life will be determined by your words.

2.2 The power of the tongue - Proverbs 18:20-21

2.2.1 The Israelite's word determined whether or not they lived in God's plan – Numbers 13:27-14:10, 28

3 Tame your tongue – James 3:5-10, Luke 6:45

3.1 If you want your words to bring you into God's plan, you must tame the tongue.

3.2 How to tame our tongue – Luke 6:45

Conclusion One way you live in God's plan is by your words. Your words will determine which path your life will take. To live in God's plan, you must tame your tongue and continue to speak God's Word over your life. Not only should we avoid speaking negatively, but we also need to speak God's Word daily over your life.

Discussion Questions:

1. Whose decision is it whether you live the blessed life God has prepared for you?
2. What does James chapter 3 teach about your words?
3. What must you do for your words to direct your life into God's plan?