

Sunday, 28 January 2024

Confidence In Prayer

To have a successful and powerful prayer life, you must be confident that God hears your prayers and that you receive what you ask for.

What you need to take hold of: You can be confident that you receive what you pray for.

1 You can pray with confidence.

1.1 To have a powerful and successful prayer life, you must be confident in three areas before you pray.

- Be confident in knowing God's Word for yourself – John 15:7
- Be confident God hears you when you pray - John 11:42
- Be confident you will receive what you pray for - Mark 11:24

2 How can you be confident when you pray?

2.1 Have a revelation that you are the righteousness before God – 2 Corinthians 5:21, Proverbs 28:1

2.2 Live right before God – 1 John 3:18-22

2.3 Pray according to God's Word. Find scripture that promises what you ask for – Romans 10:17

2.4 Believe God is faithful to His Word – 2 Corinthians 1:20

Conclusion: You can be confident that you receive what you pray for. When you pray according to God's Word, you will have faith that God hears your prayer and that you receive what you ask.

Discussion Questions:

1. To believe you will receive what you pray for, what three areas do you need confidence in?
2. What are the four ways you can become confident in prayer?