

Happy Mother's Day

10 August 2025

Once a Mom, Always a Mom

Motherhood is divine calling and lifelong ministry of a growing relationship filled with love, wisdom, and grace at each phase of her children's life. As her child grows, the wise mother builds and adapts her relationship with her children to remain connected to them. No matter what her child's age, once a mom, always a mom.

---

1. Nurturing Infants: The Ministry of Presence - Isa 66:13
2. Teaching Young Children: The Ministry of Instruction - Deut 6:6-7, 1 Sam 3:1-18
3. Encouraging Grade School Children: The Ministry of Affirmation - Eph 6:4, Eph 4:29
4. Guiding Junior High Children: The Ministry of Listening - Jam 1:19
5. Supporting High School Children: The Ministry of Trust - Matt 25:14-23, 1 Tim 4:11-16, Acts 23:12-22
6. Advising Young Adult Children: The Ministry of Respect - 1 Chr 22:5-13
7. Encouraging Middle-Aged Adult Children: The Ministry of Friendship - Ruth
8. Honoring Aging Children (60+): The Ministry of Legacy - 2Tim 1:5
9. Embracing the Life-long Role: The Ministry of Prayer - 1 Thess 5:17

Closing Encouragement - Prov 22:6, Provs 31:28

Being a mother is a lifelong commitment to what is best for your child. And even in difficulties, mothers are ready to help their children. A mother's role may change, but her love remains constant.

Questions for Discussion:

1. What is the characteristic of a wise mother?
2. What is a mother's role during each phase of her child's life?
3. How can a mother maintain relationship with her child no matter what the child's age?